

'Come dine' with Sam and Paul and raise money for Clutton Play Area

A live version of 'Come dine with me' sees Sam Betley and Paul Southward put their renowned culinary skills to the test in aid of Clutton Play Area.

The format:

1. Each chef will produce a 3 course menu (starter, main and pudding) and issue this to diners for them to place their order in advance of the evening. Diners may choose each course from either chef's menu.
 2. On the night each diner will score each course and an average score per chef per course will be established.
 3. The loser on the night does the washing up!
- A max of 40 tickets are available at £17.50 per person
 - Diners to bring their own wine and drink
 - Black tie will be applauded but not compulsory
 - Raffle

Saturday 21st May at 7.30pm till 11:30pm
